About the property

This beautiful bright and spacious home is situated in the sought after, quiet area of Darren View in Llangynwyd.

This custom-built home was ahead of the curve for multi-generational living; it is one property in structure though cleverly designed to provide independent living for some members of the family. This stylish home boasts sleek modern finishes and an abundance of natural light that dances through the generous windows. The main lounge boasts bi fold doors that open on to a large private patio. Take pleasure in preparing your meals in the first well laid out kitchen with shaker style pale grey units and savour your morning coffee on one of the private patios enjoying the extensive views, There is also a well fitted utility room, also with pale grey units. Relax in the spacious master bedroom, an epitome of luxury which leads to an en-suite facility and dressing area (or third bedroom in the main part of the house).

Bedroom two, also large in size and looking over the rear rural views, features built-in wardrobes and bathed in natural light, offering a cosy and warm ambiance. The fourth bedroom, double in size, also features built in wardrobes and looks out towards the quiet cul-de-sac. Opposite the fourth bedroom, you will find the large family bathroom with both separate bath and shower cubicle.
