MARTIN THORNTON PLATINUM

Positioned on this tree-lined, no-through road is this very spacious five-bedroom semi-detached period home, extended to the rear. This has been a much loved family home for the past thirty years. The property is ideally placed for motorway access, Huddersfield Royal Infirmary, local schools and amenities within Lindley village centre. The spacious accommodation is arranged on three floors. There is an entrance hallway, downstairs WC, dining/living room with bay window, large snug, large living/garden room and breakfast kitchen with integrated appliances. On the first floor are three bedrooms, bathroom and separate WC. On the top floor are two further bedrooms. There is a gas-fired central heating system. Externally, the property has a detached double garage on the opposite side of the road along with front and rear gardens, the rear with a large patio area and a lawn. Properties in this location are rarely available and an early internal viewing is advised.

Details

Entrance Porch

An open entrance porch gives shelter from the elements and from here an external timber door with the upper portion having leaded glazing gives access to the hallway.

Hallway

The wide entrance hallway is particularly impressive with a high ceiling and a spindle staircase incorporating heart detailing, which was a feature of the original builder's design. Beneath the staircase is a large and useful storage cupboard. There is oak-style laminate flooring and a radiator. Access can be gained to the dining/living room.

Dining/Living Room

Positioned at the front of the property with a wonderful wide bay window, this is a multipurpose room that could be utilised as a formal dining room or living room. The room enjoys a pleasant dual aspect with the bay window at the front and side windows on either side of the fireplace. The fireplace has decorative tiling incorporating a mirror and a deep hearth with an open grate. There is deep cornice coving, a picture rail, deep skirting boards, plenty of room for furniture and a radiator.

Snug

This is a good-sized third reception room which makes a very cosy sitting room or a home office. There is a wide chimney breast with a timber fire surround incorporating tiling and an open grate. Above the picture rail is decorative plaster frieze work, a serving hatch through to the breakfast kitchen and a radiator. Set to a feature archway with central glazed door with leaded glazing above, access can be gained to the rear sitting room/dining room.

Sitting/Garden Room

This very large principal reception room is positioned at the rear of the property and is light and bright with glazing to three sides. There is a fire surround with a marble finish hearth and electric stove along with a large skirting heater, coving to the ceiling and a wall light point. A timber and glazed door gives access to the garden.

Downstairs WC

This is accessed from the hallway and has a continuation of the oak-style laminate flooring. The room has a wall-mounted hand basin, a low level WC and a side window.

Breakfast Kitchen

This room has an array of units to high and low levels with granite working surfaces and a sunken one-and-a-half bowl stainless steel sink with a mixer tap. Integrated appliances include a five-ring gas hob with granite splashback and illuminated canopy-style filter hood, Bosch oven, grill and fridge. There is space for an American-style fridge freezer and plumbing for an automatic washer. Concealed is the boiler for the central heating system. The room enjoys a dual aspect with rear and side windows along with a timber and glazed side door and a continuation of the oak-style laminate flooring.

First Floor Landing

From the hallway, the staircase rises to the first floor landing, which has a radiator and a staircase rising to the top floor accommodation.

External Details

Located on this tree lined, no-through road, the property has a detached double garage on the opposite side of the road with twin up and over doors and a separate power supply. In front of the garage, there is parking for several vehicles. Between stone gateposts, a metal gate gives access to a short run of steps and a tarmac pathway which branches to the left to the front door and continues to the right hand side where there is a gate giving access to the rear garden. The front of the property has a rockery section with a lawn, mature flowerbeds and borders, with flower beds and rose bushes beneath the bay window. To the right hand side is a paved pathway leading to a door into the breakfast kitchen along with access to external water. The pathway continues around to the rear of the property where there is a large, paved patio area enjoying a good degree of privacy and faces west, benefitting from the afternoon sun. There are
