Details

Entrance Porch

An external uPVC door with leaded glazed panels gives access to the entrance porch, which is extended from the original design and a perfect place for shoes and coats. There is oak-style laminate flooring that continues into the living/dining kitchen.

Living/Dining Kitchen

This particularly stylish open plan eating and entertaining space is presented to a high standard, blending character and contemporary features. There is a wonderful central beam on display and a staircase incorporating glazed panels and a stainless steel handrail that rises to the first floor. The kitchen area has contemporary units to high and low levels with wood block style worktops, a sink with mixer tap and brick-style tiling. Integrated appliances include a four-ring gas hob with illuminated canopy-style filter hood and matching oven beneath, fridge and freezer, washer/dryer and slimline dishwasher. There is also a useful under stairs storage cupboard. The room has various wall light points and ceiling downlighting within the kitchen area. The use of furniture creates individual areas in this open plan space. There is a walk-in bay to the front elevation which is part of the extension and a perfect place for a dining/bistro table, with a window enjoying a south-westerly aspect. There is a radiator and an electric log-effect fire with provision above for a wall-mounted TV in a media wall style. The oak-style laminate flooring continues within this room.

First Floor Landing

This landing also has the stainless steel and glazed staircase along with a drop down ladder giving access to useful storage within the loft space which is partly boarded. As the property is set on a hillside, a timber and glazed door gives access to the rear garden and parking which are at first floor level. There is also a radiator.

Bedroom One

This large double bedroom is positioned at the front of the property and is particularly light and bright. Twin uPVC windows provide long distance views and the National Park in the distance. Over the staircase projection is a built-in wardrobe with hanging rail and shelving above. The room can accommodate further fitted or freestanding furniture and has a radiator.

Bedroom Two

This bedroom is positioned at the rear of the property and has a rear uPVC window and a radiator.

Bathroom

The stylish bathroom has a white three-piece suite. The bath has an overhead waterfall-style shower fitting over and hand-held shower attachment. There is a low-level WC and, upon a timber plinth with open storage beneath, a rectangular trough-style hand basin with mixer tap along with a low-level WC with concealed cistern. A storage cupboard houses the boiler for the central heating system and there is brick-style tiling around the room. There is also floor tiling, an obscure uPVC window and an upright chrome ladder-style radiator.

External Details

At the front of the property is a paved garden area which is raised and set back from the road. This can be a real sun trap. To the rear of the property, which is at first floor level, there is a paved seating area and around the corner is a useful storage area ideal for a lock-box/shed. There is external water and steps from the paved seating area. A rockery-style garden area is located to the left of the steps.
