Entrance Porch

An external uPVC door with opaque glazed panels gives access to the entrance porch. This has a dual aspect with front and side uPVC windows with oak sills. An oak door leads to the entrance lobby.

Entrance Lobby

This has a staircase with an oak handrail rising to the first floor accommodation. There is oak flooring which continues through into the living room and a stylish upright gun metal grey radiator incorporating a central slim mirror. An internal glazed door gives access to the living room.

Living Room

This well appointed reception room is positioned at the front of the property and has a feature media wall to the chimney breast with provision for a flat screen TV, beneath which is a log and pebble effect electric fire. The bay window incorporating uPVC glazing floods this room with natural light and there is a continuation of the oak flooring. There is coving to the ceiling and a stylish horizontal radiator. An oak door with glazed panels leads into the dining room.

Dining Kitchen

This room has the wow factor, extended from its original design and presented to a very high standard. This open plan eating and entertaining space has an extensive array of contemporary units to high and low levels and quartz worktops with matching upstands. There is a Franke sunken sink with adjoining grooved draining area and mixer tap. Integrated appliances include a Neff induction hob with a contemporary filter hood, Neff side-by-side ovens (one of which is a combination oven with warming drawer and one with a sliding door), fridge, freezer and dishwasher. In addition, there are corner carousel cabinets and a pull-out larder style store between both ovens. Between the kick boards is LED lighting along with ceiling downlighting and provision for a recessed flat screen TV. The floor has fabulous porcelain tiles and the room is light and bright with a uPVC window along with large French doors leading out to the decking. There is useful under stairs storage and a contemporary horizontal radiator. From here, access can be gained to a rear lobby which also has porcelain tiled flooring and an external uPVC and glazed door. An oak door gives access to the wet room.
