Entrance Porch

An external timber door with opaque glazed panels gives access to the entrance porch with a side sealed unit double-glazed window. It's the perfect place for shoes and coats, has floor tiling and a timber and glazed door leading to the living room.

Living Room

This good sized reception room is positioned at the front of the property enjoying a southerly aspect. Fabulous views can be enjoyed from its elevated position, across and down the valley, with the National Park in the distance. The room is particularly characterful with sealed unit double-glazed, mullioned windows and exposed beams to the ceiling. There is a timber fire surround with a marble finish, inlay and hearth, home to an electric fire. The room has plenty of space for furniture, a radiator and a staircase that rises to the first floor accommodation. Timber and glazed doors lead to the dining room.

Dining Room

This flexible room is positioned at the rear of the property, be it as a formal dining room or second sitting room. It can easily accommodate a large dining suite and has exposed beams to the ceiling, various wall light points and a radiator. Twin timber doors lead to the kitchen.

Kitchen

The kitchen has wall cupboards and base units with working surfaces extending to form a breakfast bar and a one-and-a-half bowl sink. Integrated appliances include a four-ring gas hob with an oven beneath and a canopy filter hood over. There is space for a freestanding fridge or freezer, sealed unit double-glazed side windows and a radiator. A wide archway leads to the utility.

Utility

The utility has storage cupboards, one of which houses the boiler for the central heating system. There is space for further appliances, plumbing for an automatic washer and an external stable style door with glazed panels which serves as an everyday entrance/exit and leads to the garden.
