The Rest Rest Bay, Porthcawl
£600,000

About the property

An opportunity to acquire a duplex apartment with substantial roof terrace and prominent sea views in the prestigious and historical building known as The Rest. This property promises a blend of luxurious living and a touch of heritage. The apartment is accessed from the original staircase in the building and is entered via an original reclaimed door. The entrance hall provides access to a cloakroom and to a useful double storage cupboard. The generous living room offers dual aspect windows and access to the roof terrace and storage room. The kitchen and dining area also offers dual aspect views along with a fully fitted kitchen by German designer Leicht with complimentary stone worktops. On the floor above are the two double bedrooms, both of which have vaulted ceiling and skylights. The master bedroom also benefits from a feature height window offering sea views. Both bedrooms offer en-suites with the master en-suite having a feature bath. Completing the accommodation is the expansive roof terrace, providing an idea setting to enjoy the breathtaking sea views. High quality fixtures and fittings throughout including under floor heating, engineered wooden flooring and Porcelain tiling.
