About the property

This four-bedroom end-of-terrace property is located in the village of Merthyr Vale and is well-presented throughout. The accommodation offers flexible living space arranged over two floors and would be suitable for a range of purchasers, including first-time buyers and investors.

The ground floor comprises an entrance area leading into a living room, with a kitchen/diner positioned to the rear of the property. The kitchen/diner provides space for dining and has access to the rear courtyard.

The first floor offers four bedrooms of varying sizes, providing adaptable accommodation which may be used for sleeping, home working, or storage, subject to the buyer's requirements and a family bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a rear courtyard area. As an end-of-terrace property, it also benefits from additional side aspect compared to mid-terrace properties.

The property is conveniently located for transport links, including access to the A470, local bus routes, and a nearby train station. Local amenities and services are available within the surrounding area.
