About the property

A charming three-bedroom home situated in the highly sought-after area of Gowerton, Swansea. This spacious property offers two inviting reception rooms, dining area and a well-sized family bathroom, providing a fantastic foundation for comfortable family living.

Externally, the home benefits from a low-maintenance courtyard garden and the addition of a garage, offering both convenience and valuable storage space.

While the property could benefit from modernisation, it presents an excellent opportunity for families looking to upsize and create their forever home in a desirable location close to local amenities, reputable schools, and transport links.
