Short Description

'Oakfield House' Standing on an estimated three quarter acre plot, a beautiful self-built family home nestled into the woodlands of Cilfrew. Featuring five double bedrooms split across three habitable floors, a spacious double garage with an optional bio-mass water heating system.

Long Description

'Oakfield House', a picturesque family home residing in an executive, self build cul-de-sac tucked into the sought after Cilfrew Village. Boasting glorious partial views over Neath Valley from an estimated three quarter acre plot, backing directly onto a public footpath within the woodlands surrounding Ty-draw Brook. An ideal family home with extensive gardens, sweeping lawns, social paved patio areas and stone steps between two tiers of usable space.

Internally, the property comprises of a spacious entrance hallway leading into the study, cloakroom / utility room and the modern and open plan lounge / kitchen / diner. The first floor houses three of our five double bedrooms and the family bathroom where our Master Bedroom shows a generous en-suite. The views here are best displayed from the second floor where the two bedrooms show large arched windows on either side along with another family shower room.

The home has been designed with the needs of a large family at heart while maintaining the capacity and potential to improve. Where generous off-street parking is found there is the business potential for conversion of the double garage or outbuildings to home office spaces subject to any relevant planning permissions.

Conveniently located for commuters with great links to the A465 and M4 corridor. With well renowned local schools nearby including Cilffriw Primary School and Llangatwg Community Comprehensive School.

Internal viewings are highly recommended.
