About the property

Presenting this immaculate semi-detached house, a perfect blend of sophistication and comfort, offered for sale in a highly sought-after location. The property boasts three generously sized bedrooms, bathroom and separate WC, providing ample space and convenience for families.

The heart of this home is its spacious reception room, an area perfect for unwinding or entertaining guests. The room is well complemented by a well-equipped kitchen/dinning, providing a haven for those who enjoy cooking. The property has been tastefully extended with a split-level, further enhancing its appeal.

An exceptional attribute of this property is its location, positioned just minutes from Risca high street, where you can find local cafes, sporting facilities, a substantial library, and all your local conveniences. Moreover, it's in close proximity to public transport links including Risca and Pontymister train station, making commuting to Newport, Cardiff, or Bristol straightforward.

For the outdoor enthusiasts, the area offers ample green spaces, walking and cycling routes, adding to the charm of the location. The property is also conveniently located near numerous schools, making it an ideal choice for families.
