About the property

We are delighted to present this unique opportunity for sale - an end of terrace property divided into two separate 1-bedroom apartments, both currently occupied by sitting tenants. This distinctive configuration makes this property a lucrative investment prospect, particularly appealing to investors looking for a steady income stream.

The property boasts two kitchens and two reception rooms, complementing the two bedrooms and two bathrooms, which ensures each apartment is self-contained and offers ample living space. This well-thought-out design ensures privacy and independence for the tenants, creating a desirable living situation that may support consistent rental income over time.

Located in a well-connected area with excellent public transport links, this property ensures ease of commute for the tenants. Furthermore, the vicinity is replete with local amenities, providing access to essential services and entertainment options. For those who prefer the outdoors, the property is also close to walking routes, offering a fine balance between urban convenience and natural beauty.

This property presents a truly remarkable opportunity for investors seeking a unique property configuration
