Short Description

A unique four bedroom detached country cottage with superb scope to extend into a capacious family home set within large and lovely level private gardens, in a semi-rural location with a further two acres of adjoining paddocks, fields and a detached stable block.

Long Description

A charming detached four bedroom double fronted cottage, built circa 1920, extensively modernised and extended, and occupying a delightful position set back in a semi-rural location, approached from Ty Mawr Lane, a country road, away from busy passing traffic, yet well placed within walking distance to the village centre of Marshfield. This unique four bedroom country cottage, occupies a large and lovely plot with extensive private level surrounding gardens, plus two further acres of paddock land with a stable block with loose boxes and a hay barn. The property provides enormous scope to extend further, subject to the necessary planning applications and building regulations, allowing the house to be converted into a 3000- 4000 square feet residence, with still larger than average gardens, together with an additional 2 acres of paddocks/fields and stables included in the price.. The property benefits gas heating with panel radiators and external gas cylinders, PVC double glazed windows, newly installed contemporary carpets fitted throughout, Oil heating available as an option with a modern outside concealed OIL tank, and newly decorated wall coverings throughout. The property is available with no chain. Must be seen!
