About the property

A standout detached family home offering an open-plan kitchen/ family room which has been equipped with modern appliances, and a useful utility room. Designed to ensure meal preparation becomes a delight rather than a chore, the kitchen also benefits from ample natural light throughout.

Boasting six bedrooms and five bathrooms, this home offers ample space for a large family or for those who frequently host guests. Each room echoes the overall immaculate condition of the property, providing comfortable living spaces ready to be personalised. Situated in a location that is both quiet and peaceful, the property offers the perfect balance between convenience and tranquillity. The nearby schools make it an ideal choice for families, while the green spaces in the vicinity provide excellent opportunities for outdoor activities and leisurely walks.

Among its unique features, the property boasts high ceilings, contributing to a sense of spaciousness and grandeur. In addition, the open-plan design facilitates a flow of light and space throughout the property, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. A garage and parking area offer significant convenience for vehicle owners, while the beautiful view adds a touch of serenity to everyday living. A distinguishing feature is the large fish pond located in the oriental rear garden, adding a unique charm to the house and providing a peaceful retreat when entertaining family and friends.
