Taff Merthyr House, Treharris Merthyr Tydfil, CF46 6RD

Offers in excess of £1,150,000

Taff Merthyr House, is a stunning and capacious versatile six bedroom double fronted modern family country house, with a plot of approximately 2 acres, benefiting a self-contained fully integrated one bedroom annex, ideal for two generation living needs, and occupying a superb location, with woodland behind, and a nature reserve below, and breath taking panoramic views across the wooded hillside Valley.

This unspoilt and truly Idyllic position, provides a unique micro climate of its own, with extensive private tree lined gardens and grounds, a natural spring pond, and a long private tree lined gated entrance drive, which is edged with charming Victorian Lantern Lights, you would imagine you are living in an oasis!

The original property was constructed mid 1920's, and then in 1980 the property was greatly extended. In 2013 the property went through a full re-nourishment with all new floors and ceilings, windows, a full re-wire, totally new plumbing and stylish new bathrooms and kitchens. The property also includes new UNDER FLOOR heating, very eco-friendly, powered by Geo Thermal Heating with ground source pumps and solar panels, clearly the heating of the future but now available with modern day living.

The property benefits mains electricity, mains water, private drainage (new septic tank installed in 2013 and currently costing only £140 over the last 9 years!).

Nestled in this picturesque valley, this large and impressive family home includes a stunning and magnificent grand entrance reception hall (24'4 x 10'4), a quality fitted kitchen (18'0 x 13'5) equipped with a range cooker, a charming main lounge (19'3 x 16'1), inset with a log burner, a sitting room (20'5 x 12'10), a snug/playroom, a 14 FT home office/study, a large cinema room and a further separate games room (18'0 x 14'5).

There are six bedrooms and four quality modern bathrooms, two being ensuite, the master bathroom ensuite being a stunning (14'0 x 10'0). The separate but fully integrated annex comprises a superb open plan lounge and kitchen being a generous (20'1 x 19'7), beautifully fitted with integrated appliances, solid oak work tops, French doors which open onto landscaped gardens, and a large imposing Inglenook Style fire place inset with a stylish log burner.

The annex also includes a spacious master bedroom (16'1 x 14'9) equipped with a stunning free standing bath, a separate cloak room with wash hand basin and slim line W.C, and a useful utility room. This amazing Annex would prove ideal for a retirement couple, a Mum and Dad looking to reside alongside their son or daughter with their family, plenty of living space, perfect for two/three generation living.

Taff Merthyr House also includes within the grounds a versatile detached barn which stands on a hard concrete base, formally a tennis court. There is both power and water to this building allowing a variety of alternative uses if required. The barn is approximately 25 x 10 meters in size, and 4 meters high. Currently this large barn is being used as an Avery.

The property is approached by two separate entrances, both off the B 4255, just before the Summit Centre on the left travelling from Trelewis to Bedlinog.

A spectacular house in a truly stunning setting. Must be seen!

Outside

Gardens and Grounds

The very private and sheltered tree lined gardens and grounds are approached from a private road via a five bar gate that lead to a long Tarmac main entrance drive with Victorian style street lights and stoned stepped borders approaching a large Tarmac parking area with space for several vehicles and edged lawn borders with timber fence screens. The gardens are extensive and run the full width of the plot with gentle lawns tree lined on both sides providing a mini micro climate of its own, with wonderful far reaching views across the valley. Nestled within this valley setting this substantial house with additional annex also incorporates an original tennis court with hard concrete base currently housing a multi-functional aviary with individual units adaptable for a multitude of uses. Various other outbuildings include open log stores and storage sheds, whilst the true tranquillity and idyllic setting of the grounds that offer maximum privacy with maximum views is quite exceptional.

Landscaped Front Garden

The front garden has been landscaped with large areas of slate borders and strategic shrubs and plants, leading to the open fronted timber pillared main porch with a clay tiled roof with access to an L shaped surrounding garden sun terrace paved with ample space for garden patio furniture and continuing across the property and running down the side passing the sitting room and lounge where French doors open on to this outdoor space. There are tree lined lawned gardens beyond garden sun terrace paved with ample space for garden patio furniture and continuing across the property and running down the side passing the sitting room and lounge where French doors open on to this outdoor space. There are tree lined lawned gardens beyond which incorporate a private continuous driveway leading to a further five bar gate with access to a separate private entrance road. The front garden also includes a circular paved sun patio sheltered by trees together with an Astro turf area with hot tub, wave edged fencing and edged with railway sleepers. Again there are dramatic views enjoyed across the valley.
