About the property

This three bedroom has a lovely natural flow that leads you through the living space. The hallway opens into the living room, the living room into the kitchen/dining room and the kitchen/dining room into the garden. This is a new home that will suit first-time buyers, young professionals, and the comings and goings of friends and family.

This stunning new development brings a selection of two, three and four-bedroom homes to the Welsh village of Llanharan, close to beautiful countryside yet within easy reach of Bridgend and Cardiff.

With a number of local businesses and eateries, along with a post office, convenience stores, schools, community centre, sports facilities and train station, Llanharan is a lovely place to put down roots. The large village sits among a cluster of well-equipped towns and villages just above the M4, which leads east to Cardiff and onwards to Newport and England. This means you'll be just 30 minutes from the Welsh capital and its many shops, businesses, attractions and entertainment venues – but still within easy reach from rolling countryside, walking routes and beautiful beaches.
