*** GUIDE PRICE £700,000 - £750,000 *** On a popular tree-lined quiet residential street in the heart of Chatterton Village is this stunning end-of-terrace extended Victorian house exuding charm and sophistication. Boasting a perfect blend of immaculately refurbished contemporary style with classic period features, this property offers a truly exquisite living experience.

Step inside to discover a masterpiece of design, featuring a John Lewis kitchen equipped with integrated Neff appliances - including a slide-and-hide electric oven, combination oven, and induction hob with downdraft extractor hood and pop-up electrical sockets. The generous island with a sleek inset sink and Quooker hot tap provides both style and functionality, creating the perfect space for entertaining. A highly practical utility room is perfectly placed for keeping the laundry out of sight.

The light-filled living space flows seamlessly to the garden through 'FCB' frameless slide-and-fold patio doors, offering uninterrupted views of the beautifully maintained garden; perfect for those seeking a low-maintenance outdoor retreat.

Upstairs on the first floor are two double bedrooms with the main bedroom showcasing bespoke fitted wardrobes from The Heritage Wardrobe Company and a handsome family bathroom featuring a walk-in 'rainfall' shower and roll-top bath. A further double bedroom and a luxurious ensuite shower room are on the second floor. On the ground floor is a perfectly proportioned WC for added convenience.

Situated near an array of local amenities, including shops, restaurants, and schools, this property also offers easy access to Bickley Station, making commuting a breeze. Nearby parks such as Havelock Recreation Ground and Norman Park provide the perfect backdrop for outdoor leisure activities.

This exceptional property is ideal for couples, singles, or downsizers looking for a stylish and comfortable home to fall in love with. Book your viewing without delay!
