LOCATION

Settled in North Shropshire, Wem is the perfect setting for exploring. An easily accessible town from all directions, Wem is filled with an abundance of Georgian buildings and unique independent shops. This traditional Shropshire market town provides a rustic lifestyle and is the ideal place to find your forever home. Just outside of the town you will find several of Shropshire's best attractions including castles, canals, meres, mosses and Hawkstone Park & Follies. Conveniently sited on a main railway the town's station provides frequent services through Crewe to Manchester and through Shrewsbury to Telford, Birmingham and Cardiff. There are also local bus services passing close to the development itself.

The town has the full range of educational facilities, including local nurseries, St Peter's CE primary school and The Thomas Adams secondary school and sixth form college. The town also has a number of sporting facilities and community clubs.
