Step into a realm of timeless elegance and unparalleled convenience with this extraordinary London and North Western Railway Station House built in 1856.

Nestled in a picturesque village setting, offering a wealth of historic charm with modern living, this unique detached residence (with a royal link to Queen Mary who would have used the station house when she travelled by train to visit relatives nearby.) is ideal for those with a penchant for both history and efficiency, a commuter's dream, providing access to London's vibrant heart while offering a tranquil retreat away from the urban hustle. Perfect for commuters who need to be in London for 08.40am. It also offers a front-row seat to the mesmerizing spectacle of passing trains.

The deceptively spacious accommodation briefly comprises Lounge, Dining Room, Sitting Room, Family Room, Breakfast Kitchen, Utility, Conservatory, 2 ground floor Bedrooms, Bathroom, 2 First Floor Bedrooms and Shower Room.

The property has the benefit of oil central heating, double glazing, solar panels and house battery, private enclosed driveway with parking for several vehicles and good sized gardens with views over open farmland.
