Location

The property is located on the corner of Albert Street and Addison Street, just off Hope Street a bustling retail parade. Crook is a market town in County Durham situated circa 10 miles south west of Durham.

The Premises

The property comprises an attractive corner two storey property under a pitched roof, consisting open plan ground floor with separate store area and ladies/gents W.C facilities. The first floor consists spacious 4 bedroom flat with large living room, kitchen, bathroom and shower room. The property also benefits from a spacious outside area with decking. Since purchasing the property in 2022 our client has made many improvements including renovation of the external facia, new flat roof and plastering the kitchen.
