Location

Framwellgate Moor is situated to the north of Durham City and lies adjacent to Pity Me and Newton Hall. The area is densely populated and is also the location of New College Durham and Framwellgate School, therefore providing a lot of term time custom. Parking is readily available free and off street.

The Business

Golden Rice was established by our client in 1994, in which time the business has built up an excellent reputation for high quality food and customer service, it therefore benefits from excellent repeat custom as well as passing trade. The takeaway and delivery business specialises in providing traditional authentic quality Bangladeshi, Indian Cuisine at reasonable prices. This is a genuine sale with our clients wishing to retire.
