Description

A charming end-terrace 1930's house situated on this sought after road within the ever popular Tudor development in North Kingston. The property offers huge potential for further extension on the ground floor utilising the extra width of the plot and also into the loft space which would create an impressive family home (STPP). Currently this attractive home features a well balanced layout comprising: generous double reception room, extended kitchen/dining room, downstairs W.C, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside there is off street parking to the front and a delightful 51ft rear garden with single garage.

Situation

Wolsey Drive is a sought after road ideally situated in the popular Tudor Estate in North Kingston. The property is conveniently positioned for both Kingston and Richmond stations giving direct access into Waterloo, and the A3 which serves both London & the M25. Kingston and Richmond town centres with their array of shops and restaurants are a short distance away and the River Thames and Richmond park are both near by. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
