Description

A well presented ground floor apartment situated in this iconic Grade II listed mid-century development. The property features spacious accommodation approaching 700sqft comprising: modern fitted kitchen, spacious bathroom with white suite, large reception/dining room with windows overlooking communal gardens, master bedroom and guest bedroom. There is an external storage shed and the property further benefits from a long leasehold with 957 years remaining and a share in the freehold.

Situation

Parkleys is situated within a conservation area and is a Grade II listed development designed by the post war architect Eric Lyons, famous in the 1950's for creating the first "span development" homes. The property is conveniently positioned for Ham Parade offering local shops and bus routes, and Kingston and Richmond town centres, Ham Common, the River Thames and Richmond Park are all easily accessible. The standard of schooling in the immediate area is excellent within both the private and state sector.
