Trapp, Llandeilo, Carmarthenshire.

Property Description

Exceptionally well located small farm comprising a traditional stone built farmhouse, mainly stone outbuildings, with much potential and about 54 acres of productive land and woodland.

The property stands on the outskirts of the popular village of Trapp and is approached over its own tarmacadam tree lined driveway with stone entrance.

There are magnificent views from the land over the surrounding countryside of the Cennen Valley to the dramatic Carreg Cennen castle.

The farmhouse comprises 2 reception rooms and 4 bedrooms and contains original features of massive oak ceiling beams.

The outbuildings have a separate entrance from the house and are based around a central yard, formerly cobbled, on four sides with ranges of traditional buildings including cart shed, cow housing and original Victorian stables. These, subject to the appropriate planning permission, would make excellent holiday accommodation.

Trapp is a renowned tourist destination mainly based around its magnificent castle and surrounding countryside, whilst the Towy valley in general is a hugely popular area for visitors with the botanical gardens of Wales, Aberglasney house and gardens and other castles of Dinefwr and Dryslwyn.

Llandeilo is only 3 miles away with amenities including primary and secondary schools, stations on the heart of Wales railway and a range of individual shopping outlets.

There are a variety of places to eat and drink in both Llandeilo and the nearer Ffairfach village.

The locality is considered accessible being only a 20 minute drive to the M4 extension at Crosshands.

The farmhouse accommodation briefly comprises hall, sitting room, dining room, rear hall, utility room, bathroom, kitchen and pantry. At first floor level are four bedrooms and en-suite.

THE LAND.

Amounting to 53.9 acres, or thereabouts, the land as shown on the plan provided includes enclosures of flat and gently sloping pasture land and meadow suitable for silage.

The fields are fenced to sheep and are naturally watered.

The land has a south facing aspect and include fantastic far reaching views over farmland, Carreg Cennen castle and the open mountains of the Brecon Beacons beyond.

The land would suit a variety of uses for livestock or horses etc.

The property does include some natural mainly hard woodland together with one enclosure across the Trapp road comprising mature trees including beech and oak.

No entitlements are included with this property.

Agents Note

Access to the property and land is over a tarmacadamed driveway in the ownership of this property although Carreg Cennen house has a right of way over it.

The drive is a particularly feature of the property with its flanking stone gateway opening onto the driveway flanked by specimen beach trees.
