Whitstable Road
Faversham ME13 8BT

for sale offers in the region of £475,000

Viewings are highly recommended on this deceptively spacious, three-bedroom, Victorian home set in a sought-after location in Faversham.

The property is conveniently located for nearby newsagents, bus routes and schools within walking distance. The property provides easy access via Whitstable Road to the A2 and M2 roadways leading to Ashford, Canterbury and London.

The accommodation is spread over three floors to include a spacious living room with bay window, separate dining room with open fireplace leading through to the modern kitchen and bathroom to the rear.

To the first floor you will find three bedrooms, the spacious main bedroom to the front of the house enjoying its own bay window, a middle bedroom with storage cupboard over the stairs and spacious third bedroom.

The home also includes a basement room, currently used for storage, but could be upgraded as a further room or study, subject to the usual building consents. Outside there is a well-maintained rear garden with lawn and patio areas and a gate to the rear.
