A variety of local supermarkets can be found nearby and the town centre also boasts access to a local hospital and plenty of doctors surgeries. Banks, retail stores and independent shops are also in good supply and there are even regular town markets held for those looking for a taste of traditional life.

Places of interest in the local area are varied, with John Coles Park, the Museum and Heritage Centre and Chippenham Folk Festival just a few examples. Rail links are also good and Chippenham railway station features along the main line to London Paddington. It also retains some impressive railway arches and architectural triumphs built by the famous engineer Brunel.

As an ancient riverside market town, Chippenham also has plenty of historical intrigue for those interested in living in this area.
