

Tresmarrow | Launceston

Town • Country • Coast

A stunning and spacious 5 bedroom detached property with a generous plot which includes gardens at the front and rear alongside a driveway at the side leading to a detached double garage. The property offers spacious living accommodation which includes a generous living room alongside an open-plan kitchen and dining room and 2 en-suite bedrooms alongside the family bathroom.

The property can be found on the outskirts of the town within a developing cul-de-sac comprising 4 other executive detached properties. The frontage of the property includes a lawned garden area which wraps around to the side. A pathway will lead to the front door with a driveway at the other side leading to the double garage with access around to the rear. The rear garden is laid to lawn with a natural border.

Entrance to the property itself is into the hallway which is full height to the top of the first floor creating a light and spacious first impression. To your right there is a useful room which could be a study, games room or home gym. To the other side of the hallway there is a generous living room which is an impressive size. The living room is open to the open-plan kitchen and dining room which is the hub of the home, with bi-fold doors leading to the rear garden. At the side of the property there is a hallway leading to the plant room, housing the underfloor heating manifold, a utility room and a useful side door.

On the first floor there is an open landing which will overlook the entrance hallway. There are in total 5 spacious bedrooms in this impressively proportioned family home with 2 of the bedrooms en-suite alongside a family bathroom. There is some scope at this stage of the build for buyers to have some choice in terms of the kitchen colour, before anything is fitted in the property.

Situation

Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as "the gateway to Cornwall" Launceston is centred one mile west of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between Cornwall and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline alongside Plymouth and Exeter. The town itself offers a variety of individual businesses from boutiques to fine food shops, blending with occasional national outlets including Tesco, M&S Food and Costa coffee. Local facilities include a leisure centre, medical facilities and well regarded primary and secondary schooling. Did you know? The very impressive Launceston Castle dates from Norman times. Before the 13th century AD Launceston used to be the capital of the Earldom of Cornwall. Launceston has given its name to other places in the world including Australia. The Cornish name is Lannstefan and Lannstefan is Cornish for Church of St Stephen.
