

A spacious 4 bedroom detached farmhouse set in a peaceful rural setting with a generous plot of around 1 acre which includes gardens and an array of outbuildings. The property has a wealth of character features and a ground floor area which could be adapted to create an annex alongside an additional annex adjoined to the side of the property. The property could appeal to a wide range of buyers including smallholders, those looking to run a home business either from the property utilising the ground floor ancillary rooms or indeed from the outbuildings (subject to any relevant necessary consents).

The property is set in a rural community in a peaceful country lane setting with good access to the North Cornish Coast and sandy beaches. The property is approached via a concreted driveway leading down to the property where there is a garden at the front and a courtyard area at the rear. There is ample parking and the outbuildings which comprise 3 substantial adjoining barns. There are lawned areas wrapping around the barns and a vegetable patch plus a wildlife paddock with a natural tree lined border.

The property itself offers 3 reception rooms with a spacious living room and dining room at the front and a study/home office at the rear. The property retains much of its character and has particularly high ceilings. There is a traditional farmhouse kitchen with central island which is the hub of the home. At the side is a range of flexible rooms with a downstairs shower room, store room, utility room housing the boiler and a study/hobbies room at the front overlooking the front garden.

On the first floor there are 4 spacious bedrooms alongside 2 bathrooms providing the ideal family space. At the side of the property accessed externally is the annex area, with a living room and kitchen open-plan, internal bedroom and shower room and there is an additional lean-to store at the side.
