

Welcome to this charming detached stone barn converted from a former piggery. Located on the outskirts of the pretty village of Canworthy Water. This delightful barn has large gardens, ample off road parking and a fantastic detached workshop all in a quiet location.

Upon entering you walk into a hallway with utility room/WC leading off. You are greeted by a cosy dual aspect sitting/dining room with a view over fields, perfect for relaxing with family and friends. Adjoining the reception room is a separate dual aspect fitted kitchen with integrated appliances. There are 3 bedrooms all enjoying views providing ample space for a growing family or guests. The bathroom offers convenience by the addition of a wet room area. The property enjoys underfloor central heating to most areas. To the rear of the barn is a covered veranda ideal for pot plants and somewhere pleasant to sit.

One of the main standout features of this property is the stunning views it offers over the gardens and fields. Beyond the generous gardens which surround the property provide a tranquil space to unwind and enjoy the outdoors. There is also a productive vegetable patch alongside a small orchard attracting wildlife. Parking will never be an issue with 6 plus spaces, ensuring both convenience and practicality. Additionally, the detached workshop offers endless possibilities for hobbies or storage needs. The entire plot as a whole is approaching just under an acre. The property is located off a private lane shared with neighbouring properties and is in a quiet and peaceful setting.

Situation

Canworthy Water is a rural village located approximately 10 miles from the town of Launceston and approximately 11 miles from the town of Bude. There are village amenities nearby at Wainhouse Corner (approximately 3.6 miles) and a public house at Hallworthy (approximately 3.8 miles) with nearby Primary schooling in the village of Warbstow (approximately 1.3 miles). Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Launceston Castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as 'the gateway to Cornwall' Launceston is centred one mile (1.6 km) West of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between the Cornish peninsular and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline whilst providing great access to Plymouth and Exeter and beyond. The location provides easy access to a huge selection of recreational facilities. There are the beautiful beaches along the north Cornish coast, the rolling landscape of Dartmoor and the rugged south coast are all within easy reach. Many of the beaches offer excellent surfing and there are plenty of seaside towns to visit, such as Perranporth, Bude, Port Isaac or Boscastle. Much of the north Cornish coast is owned and managed by the National Trust with a range of footpaths and stunning scenery.
