Occupying a pleasant position on a popular development, ideally situated for easy distance of the majority of amenities including shops, schools & public transport, this superb detached new build bungalow has been built to a most individual & well planned design, utilising the maximum space and is undoubtedly an excellent example of its type.

3c Rudge Avenue is one of two detached bungalows, having been recently constructed to a most superior specification on the land to the west side of Rudge Avenue and set well back from the road via 100ft long driveway. These luxury properties have been thoughtfully designed and styled to include luxury high quality fittings throughout. A number of these features include stunning bathrooms, fresh & neutral décor throughout, oak veneered internal doors, contemporary kitchens with a range of built in appliances and LVT flooring throughout with full wet underfloor heating including individually controlled thermostats for each room. Each plot also has the benefit of solar panels, electric boilers, driveways with car charging points and landscaped enclosed rear gardens.

The interior which measures at approx. 592sq.ft. (55.0sq metres) includes reception hall with built in cupboard, living room with French doors to rear garden, two bedrooms, smart fitted kitchen and luxury bathroom.

Not only is Rudge Avenue convenient for local amenities, both New Cross Hospital & Bentley Bridge are less than a mile away with the city centre approx. 2miles away. Early interest is highly recommended to appreciate this exclusive home and offered with no upward chain, the accommodation further comprises:
