25 Stafford Street, Brewwood, Stafford, ST19 9DX

Asking Price: £500,000

The Property:

Thomas Harvey is pleased to offer a unique opportunity to purchase a freehold detached dwelling in the heart of Brewwood with a ground floor café/ tea room and a self-contained two bedroom flat on the first floor, to be sold with all the café fixtures & fittings.

Description:

25 Stafford Street is a modern purpose built freehold detached building at approx. 1,348sq feet and is currently designed to incorporate a ground floor A3/A4/A5 Restaurant & Café Establishment and a first floor self-contained flat. Neatly decorated throughout providing a most attractive interior yet offering a number of period features, creating the charm and appeal of a period property. Lazy Days Café is a self-contained ground floor tea room with a seating area to accommodate in excess of thirty customers with the use of cloakroom facilities, bar/ counter area and kitchen facilities. The first floor flat is accessed via a rear exterior staircase leading to first floor where there is an open plan kitchen, inner hall, charming living room with wood burning stove, fitted modern bathroom and two double bedrooms with the master enjoying a pleasant outlook via the rear balcony. At the rear of the building, is allocated off road parking for two spaces.

Location:

Occupying choice & prime position in the heart of the popular market town known as Brewwood just off Bargate Street/ Sandy Lane and therefore a most convenient location for the busy trade, this affluent village has to offer. Brewwood is an historic and picturesque village in the South Staffordshire district with popular local facilities including a post office, delicatessen, butchers, bakery, supermarket, newsagents with post office and highly regarded public houses & restaurants. Having excellent schooling close at hand including St Dominics in Brewwood, Birchfield Preparatory School, Wolverhampton Grammar School, Tettenhall College, Stafford Grammar and Adams Grammar in Newport. The area also attracts a number of visitors with popular attractions such as Chillington Hall & Hockerhill Adventure Play barn. Brewwood has superb transport links having the A5, A41, M6 and M6 (Toll) all being very accessible for commuting to principal towns/ cities.

Agents Comments:

Stafford Street is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a rare acquisition of a thriving village location business with residential accommodation, ‘all under the same roof’. The sale of the property not only includes the freehold accommodation but also the goodwill for the business and all the fixtures & fittings for the café. Perfect of buyers wishing to manage a prosperous business in a favoured village location and reside in the living accommodation above. Stafford Street would also make an excellent investment opportunity to rent out both aspects.
