

VICARAGE ROAD CROMER, NR27 9DQ

£375,000
FREEHOLD

Situated just off the Norwich Road and only one third of a mile from Cromer parish church and the heart of Cromer, this imposing Victorian end of terraced house is arranged over three floors and still boasts numerous period features.

On the ground floor the reception hall gives access to a comfortable sitting room centred around a most attractive fireplace with window over a separate dining room ideal for entertaining with ample space for a table and eight chairs, a breakfast room which opens into a garden room. A breakfast room opens into an attractively fitted, good size kitchen with utility area beyond. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms plus family bathroom with the principal bedroom having an en-suite shower room. On the upper two floors there are three bedrooms plus a home office/study. The accommodation is both gas centrally heated and double glazed but does offer scope for some further improvement and the opportunity to put your own stamp on this impressive home.

The gardens have been designed for minimal maintenance and rear vehicle access leads to a detached brick-built garage with an adjoining covered area ideal for entertaining.

Location

Location Cromer is an extremely popular seaside town on the North Norfolk coast which became a resort in the early 19th century with some of the rich Norwich banking families making the town their family destination. Facilities include the late Victorian pier, the home to the Pavilion Theatre, a rich variety of both independent and chain retailers to include supermarkets, art gallery, craft shops, cinema and pubs alongside restaurants and fast food outlets. There is also schooling to 16 years of age within the town.

Nearby National Trust properties include Felbrigg and Blicking Halls, Sheringham Park, whilst further afield the stately homes of Holkham, Houghton and Sandringham are within easy travelling distance. Bus and rail links provide excellent transport links to the city of Norwich some 23 miles, with Norwich railway station on the east side of the city providing a rail link to London Liverpool Street in under two hours and the Norwich International Airport on the northern outskirts of the city. Further locations within easy travelling distance include North Walsham just over 9 miles, Aylsham 10.7 miles and Sheringham some 4.5 miles.
