CROMER

Voted by "The Times" Newspaper second best place to invest in the country.

Cromer is an extremely popular seaside town on the North Norfolk coast which became a resort in the early 19th century with some of the rich Norwich banking families making the town their family destination.

Facilities include the late Victorian pier, the home to the Pavilion Theatre, a rich variety of both independent and chain retailers to include supermarkets, art gallery, craft shops, cinema and pubs alongside restaurants and fast food outlets. There is also schooling to 16 years of age within the town.

Nearby National Trust properties include Felbrigg and Blickling Halls, Sheringham Park, whilst further afield the stately homes of Holkham, Houghton and Sandringham are within easy travelling distance. Bus and rail links provide excellent transport links to the city of Norwich some 23 miles, with Norwich railway station on the east side of the city providing a rail link to London Liverpool Street in under two hours and the Norwich International Airport on the northern outskirts of the city. Further locations within easy travelling distance include North Walsham just over 9 miles, Aylsham 10.7 miles and Sheringham some 4.5 miles.

OVERVIEW

Located just a short drive to the town centre is this imposing property with over 4700 square feet of accommodation. Formerly it was used as an education centre for young adults. It has ample outside space and parking areas. the property lends itself to a conversion into luxury apartments but it could be converted into a number of uses, either residential or commercial.
