Beeston Regis

The beautiful, peaceful village of Beeston Regis lies on the North Norfolk coastline a mile from the town of Sheringham, two miles from Cromer and 7.5 miles from the traditional market town of Holt. Beeston Regis is home to the remains of St Marys Priory which now forms part of Priory Farm Garden. Near to the Priory is the Priory Maze, a great and popular tourist attraction which includes a café-restaurant and garden centre with rare and exotic plants grown enabled due to the microclimate in this part of Norfolk.

A famous landmark within Beeston is the aptly named 'Beeston Bump'. Otherwise known as Beeston Hill, this cliff-top hill which overlooks the sea and Beeston Regis village itself is 207 feet (63m) high and is very much a focal feature of the village. The bump is part of the renowned Norfolk Coast Path which runs from Hunstanton, through Beeston Regis, to Hopton-On-Sea. Part of the larger England Coast Path and traverses 83 miles (134km) of Norfolk Coast with fantastic views and wildlife.
