Here's our TOP TEN reasons to love Grenville:

1. Spacious, wonderfully light and bright accommodation - there are big windows and good sized rooms with a gross internal area of c. 1973 sq ft (183.3 sq m).
2. Come on in an enclosed porch leads into the entrance hall with cloakroom and understairs cupboard.
3. Scope to upgrade - a cherished home for the last 20 years, the accommodation is well-maintained and ready to move into but now offers the opportunity to refresh and add your own stamp.
4. Sociable living dining kitchen perfect for entertaining - the kitchen is fitted with base and wall units, breakfast bar and a sink unit with a window providing a lovely view of the garden. There is also ample space for a dining table and seating. For more formal family gatherings and being open to the living kitchen, there is a dual aspect dining room with double glazed doors out to the terrace.
5. A welcoming sitting room with Adams style fireplace and a gas fire on a slate hearth.
6. A splendid spot to sit and relax, a south facing conservatory with sliding doors out to the garden and terrace.
7. Sweet dreams - there are four double bedrooms; bedroom 1 has a range of fitted furniture, bedroom 2, known as The Castle Room because of its lovely far reaching views across rooftops to Hornby Castle and bedroom 3 has an en suite shower room. There is also a three piece house bathroom.
8. Garaging and parking - a good sized integral single garage with electric up and over doors, power and light and a useful pantry/garden store to the rear. There is also driveway parking for two cars.
9. Generous, well-maintained gardens wrap around the house with a beech hedge boundary, manicured lawns, south facing seating terrace, deep, well stocked borders, trees, pergola with climbing rose and clematis, wooden shed and space for a small vegetable garden.
10. Popular and highly accessible village - situated within the Conservation Area Lune Valley village of Hornby in a private and secluded setting. For further information on the surrounding area, please see page 5.

A well regarded Lune Valley Village

Hornby has a village shop/newsagents and a post office with tearoom. The village institute hosts a full calendar of social events, a licensed bar and a small gym.

The village also offers a primary school, public house, The Royal Oak, a day nursery, swimming pool and a doctors' surgery (part of the Kirkby Lonsdale practice) all within walking distance.

Hornby Castle, with its central Keep tower dating back to 1520, is situated centrally within the village. The gardens are open to the public where you can explore the beautiful gardens, river walk and visit the walled garden nursery.

Nearby Wray (1.8 miles) has a general store, a primary school, a tearoom and gift shop, a public house (The George & Dragon), village hall and two churches. Also worth a mention as a date for your diary is the annual Scarecrow Festival, which Wray proudly hosts in May.

The village of Caton (4.6 miles) is a satellite village for Lancaster; here you'll find a primary school, Co-op, two pubs, a petrol station, chemist and doctors' surgery.

Voted best place to live in the north west by The Times for a number of years, the Cumbrian market town of Kirkby Lonsdale is conveniently located 7.8 miles to the north and has much on offer in terms of places to eat and drink, independent shops, a weekly market, a bank and a post office, as well as branches of Boots and Booths, our regional supermarket. There is also a range of commercial businesses represented in the town, an opticians, two dentists and a doctors' surgery and the well regarded secondary school, Queen Elizabeth School.

When the bright lights beckon, the Georgian city of Lancaster (9.4 miles) offers a comprehensive selection of facilities including Lancaster University, the University of Cumbria, Lancaster & Morecambe College, the Royal Lancaster Infirmary, the Dukes Cinema and Theatre, the Grand Theatre, concerts at the University and Priory Church, as well as leisure and sports centres. Lancaster is also home to the girls' and boys' grammar schools.

Surrounded by scenic countryside within the Forest of Bowland, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and situated close to the Dales and Lakes National Parks there's plenty of activities and local footpaths to enjoy.

Travelling from A-B:

Hornby is on the A683 allowing easy access by car onto the M6 at J34 (7.3 miles). The A65 for travelling east is 6.6 miles distant.

If travelling by train, there is a station on the West Coast railway line at Lancaster and at Wennington (3.4 miles) on the Bentham line which runs between Leeds and Morecambe.

For holiday destinations further afield airports are at Leeds Bradford (52.9 miles), Manchester (69.7 miles) and Liverpool (75.4 miles).

Let us show you the way - from the south, exit J34 of the M6 and head along the A683 through Caton and into Hornby. On entering the village, proceed around the sharp left hand bend and over the river bridge. Turn right opposite the swimming pool and immediately right again onto Hornby Bank. Grenville is the second property on the left.
