Impressive and of great stature yet incredibly welcoming and inviting

Located in the heart of this popular coastal village and surrounded by splendid gardens and grounds, The Old Vicarage stands at the head of a private, gated drive offering privacy and seclusion.

Built in 1865 and not seen on the open market since the 1970s, the property has been refurbished and painstakingly maintained since the current owners' purchase in 2001 to create a charming and beautiful home for the 21st century.

A genuine labour of love for the owners over the years, it's hard not to be impressed by the original period features, traditional layout, high ceilings, good proportions, light rooms and stunning interiors.

Bursting with Victorian character, features include an attractive decorative tiled floor in the hall, harlequin tiled floors in the porch, kitchen, rear hall and cloakroom, picture rails, decorative cornice, ceiling roses, deep skirtings, decorative architraves, panelled doors, marble or stone fireplaces in the reception rooms with cast iron in two of the bedroom, a wooden fireplace with tiled slip in bedroom 2 and a striking oak staircase with painted panelling and etched glazed window.

A detached ancillary building, added in 2017 and constructed to a very high specification, now offers potential to convert; the detached garage also has scope to create accommodation above. Any changes will be subject to the relevant consents.
