Grade II Victorian splendour

Situated within c. 7 acres of stunning mature gardens and grounds in the heart of the picturesque South Lakes village of Sedgwick, 3 Sedgwick House is a ground floor one bedroom apartment within this magnificent Grade II Victorian former gentleman's residence.

Designed by Lancaster architects Paley and Austin, this was to be one of the earliest commissions of the partnership and was built in 1868 in Gothic Revival architectural style for William Henry Wakefield, the owner of a local gunpowder factory.

The Wakefield family vacated the property shortly before World War II and it was later used by Lancashire County Council as a school. The school closed in 1987, and the building has since been converted into residential accommodation.

There are period features at every turn; the listing details the 'entrance front has projected central four storey battlement tower flanked by dormers with stone turret. Porte-cochere in front with W (for Wakefield) on parapet.' There is a clock tower on the service wing with the ground floor windows having traceried heads and hood moulds with patterned stops, some with polished granite baluster mullions.

There is a magnificent double height hall with hammer beams roofs, staircase with opening string, decorative balusters and moulded handrail and a substantial stone and marble fireplace with a lintel bearing the inscription 'BE JUST AND FEAR NOT'.

No. 3, with a gross internal measurement c. 1050 sq ft (97.6 sq m), is situated to the ground floor with tall windows which allows the natural light to flood in and frames the wonderful views. The apartment is also bursting with original features; York stone fireplace with decorative tiles and quarry tiled hearth, arched panelled doors, mullion sash windows with panelled reveals, decorative cornices, architraves and plasterwork to ceilings, deep skirting and decorative marble and slate tiled floor in the breakfast kitchen.

Let us take you on a tour...

Come on in to the entrance hall with part decorative tiled floor, wood panelling to the walls, decorative plasterwork to the ceiling and sandstone gothic arches with etched glazed windows and double doors into the stunning main hall.

The light and bright double bedroom with ladder access to a galleried mezzanine, enjoys lovely views across the terrace and gardens.

With grand proportions, the dual aspect drawing room has a large bay with window seat from which to enjoy the glorious grounds.
