ABOUT THE HOME

A beautiful four-bedroom Victorian maisonette with a south-facing garden featuring established olive trees.

A private entryway and spacious hallway lead to a living room bathed in natural light with large windows framing the garden. Leaving the living room is a well-appointed bathroom with underfloor heating, wet room shower and freestanding bath; adjacent are two ample double bedrooms. To the front lies the bright, modern, state of the art kitchen/dining space. Currently configured as a six-person dining space, it can host more for special gatherings. Custom cabinets offer abundant storage and are draped in beautiful Italian marble. Upstairs are two bright and spacious bedrooms, each with extended ceiling height, generous windows, and built-in wardrobes. A large bathroom anchors the top floor featuring a wet room shower and underfloor heating. To the rear is a versatile utility room.

Quinton Street is a quiet residential street on the doorstep to the Earlsfield high street with independent cafes, wonderful restaurants and pubs, train station and well-stocked M&S located minutes away.

Total area (approx.): 141.8 sq. m (1,526.2 sq. ft)
