

Neville Street,
South Kensington
SW7

A fantastic family home with a spacious garden.

The house has been recently refurbished to the highest of standards. There is a total of four reception rooms throughout the home creating plenty of space for the whole family. The spacious open plan kitchen and dining room is perfect for entertaining. The kitchen is fully integrated with a large central island and an eye-level oven. The kitchen flows into the conservatory which has large double doors leading to the lovely patio garden, which has ample room for outdoor dining. There is also a formal reception room on the first floor, with access to a balcony, and a TV room on the lower ground floor. The house has five well-proportioned bedrooms which all have space for storage. The master bedroom is situated on the second floor and benefits from a spacious dressing room and beautiful en suite bathroom. The house is beautifully presented throughout with a neutral finish and tasteful furnishings. The house also benefits from a gym on the lower ground floor and a study on the first floor.
