The striking red-brick façade with intricate gables catches the sunlight, creating a timeless appeal while graceful windows flood the home with natural light. Inside the well-proportioned living areas provide both character and functionality. A standout feature is the kitchen/diner, where modern design meets natural materials, white walls pair seamlessly with wooden accents and large windows frame views.

The bathrooms are thoughtfully designed including one with a classic clawfoot tub and frosted glass windows that diffuse light across sleek fixtures and white finishes.

Outside you will find a charming private garden and patio area are ideal for morning coffee or evening gatherings.

Including eaves storage

Approximate Gross Internal Area = 194 sq m / 2088 sq ft
