Location

Running from Curzon Street in the north and Piccadilly in the south, Half Moon Street is situated in the heart of vibrant Shepherd's Market. The street is famed for its literary history - it is where the fictional character, Wooster and his valet, Jeeves of P.G. Wodehouse's novels lived, and where in 1763 James Boswell wrote his infamous diary. The West End, with Mayfair at the very heart, is ranked number one globally for international flagship designer stores, with a world class mix of over 600 shops, 40 renowned theatres, 30 museums and galleries, 17 Michelin star restaurants and 7 green spaces, including Green Park, which is found directly at the end of Half Moon Street. The property offers easy access to Bond Street, known as Europe's premier retailing destination and offering the most exclusive and prestigious brands. Local transport links include Green Park tube station (approximately 0.2 miles) for the Jubilee, Victoria and Piccadilly lines.
