The ground floor features a formal dining room at the front of the house, ideal for entertaining or family gatherings. A separate kitchen is located at the rear, with a dedicated study just beyond, an ideal space for working from home. This area also has integrated utility appliances for added convenience.

On the first floor, a spacious reception room opens on to a Juliette balcony, creating a welcoming and light-filled living space. A guest double bedroom is situated toward the rear, complete with built-in storage. A well-positioned shower room completes this floor.

The second floor comprises two further double bedrooms, including a generously sized principal bedroom at the front. Both bedrooms share a well-positioned shower room.
