RIVERSIDE MANOR

BUCKINGHAMSHIRE

A landmark new mansion of ambassadorial proportions located in a magical riverside setting on the banks of the River Thames at Cookham. The property has been designed by renowned architects EPR in London together with William Bertram in Bath, and constructed and finished by the owner to an exacting specification.

Approached over a sweeping cobbled driveway, the property stands in manicured gardens of about 4.3 acres and features 4.8m high ceilings and five main reception rooms on the ground floor. This palatial state-of-the-art house further comprises a double master suite with a river view balcony, six further bedroom suites on the first floor, an indoor pool with gymnasium and spa facilities, a cinema room, games room and a ballroom with seating for 230 guests.

Also located within the grounds are a guest house, three staff cottages, a boat house with a superb guest apartment and a tennis court. The location is perfect for access to London, Heathrow Airport and the M4/M40, with superb restaurants nearby including the Waterside Inn and The Fat Duck.
