This is a rare opportunity to acquire an exceptional house, last sold in 1976, and has been a much loved family house. The property is Grade II listed from the late 18th century with later additions in the 19th and 20th centuries.

There are lovely sash windows creating excellent light to the rooms, as well as giving views of the gardens and grounds. The house is approached by a sweeping gravel drive leading to a circular parking area with a central lavender border.

There is a wealth of period features throughout the house, including the an impressive staircase in the hall with barley-sugar balusters and moulded handrail and stunning fireplaces. The well proportioned accommodation is arranged over three floors and can be seen on the floor plans.
