The property

Alfords Farm is a beautiful family home in a peaceful rural setting within the South Downs National Park. The house wraps around a south-facing terrace and looks down across the gently sloping gardens to the two ponds and beyond to its own fields. Most of the ground floor rooms and the master bedroom are double aspect, giving the house a wonderfully light, airy feel and making the most of the views.

The centre of the house was built in the 1890s and has been extended substantially since then, including the incorporation of some of the old farm buildings. It is built of Petworth stone and brick, with vertically hung tiles. The present owners have refurbished the property to a very high standard and maintain it in immaculate condition.

At the heart of the property is the light, spacious and contemporary kitchen and breakfast area. It features a three-oven AGA with a separate AGA electric oven and gas hob, a large polished granite island unit, floor to ceiling windows and an attractive internal stone wall highlighted with accent lighting.

Beyond the kitchen was once a self-contained annexe. It is now integrated into the house but has been designed in a way that would allow for separate accommodation as required with a ground floor bedroom, bathroom, sitting room and another room that has most of the services needed to create a separate kitchen if required.

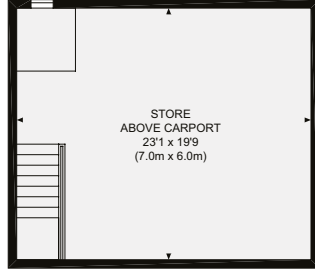

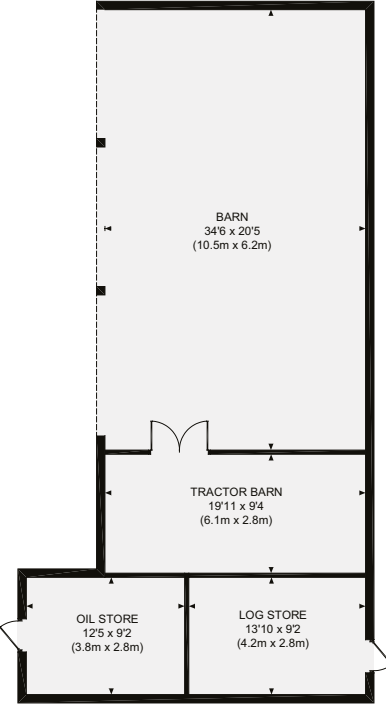

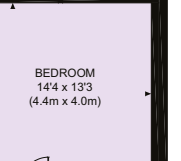

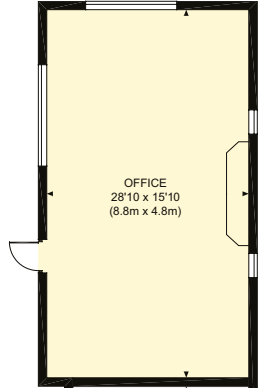

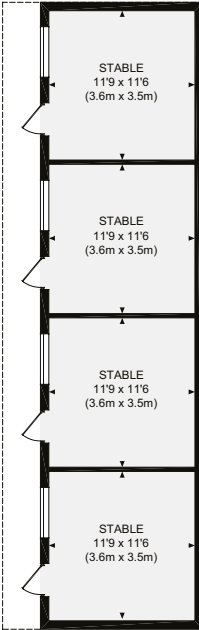

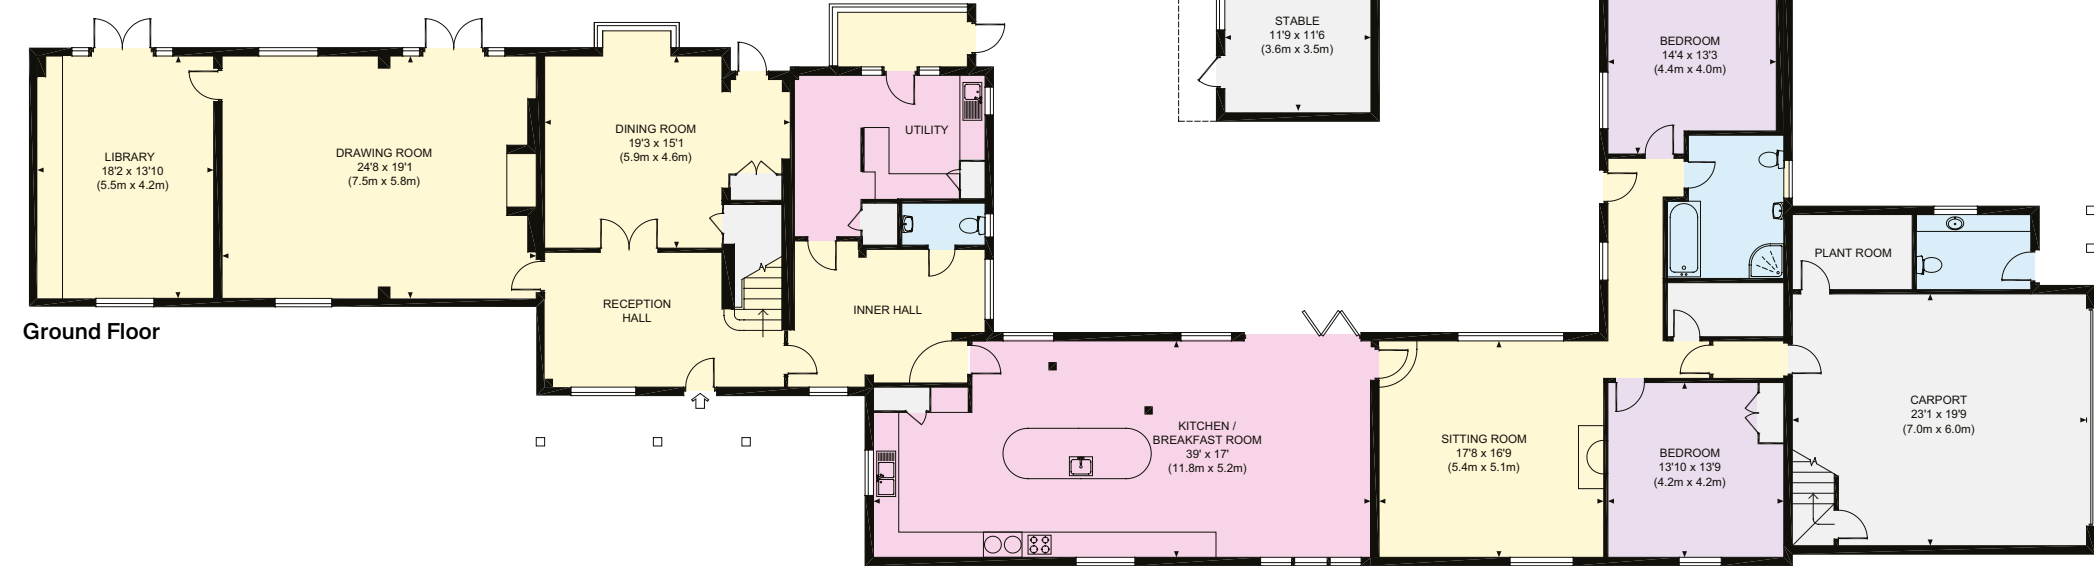

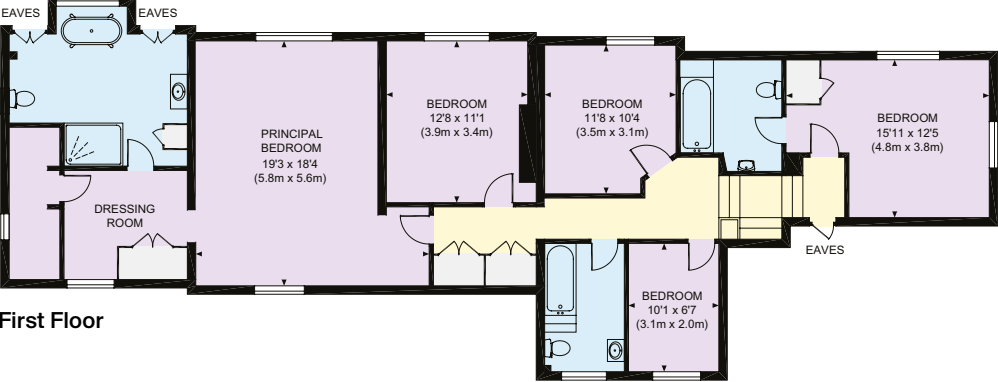

The large, peaceful drawing room has a feature fireplace and double doors opening onto the garden terrace. There is also another sitting room and a dining room on the ground floor.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom has wonderful views over the land. It has a spacious en suite bathroom, a separate dressing area and walk-in wardrobe. The guest bedroom is also en suite and, as with all the main bedrooms, looks out over the land. There are three further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Approximate Gross Internal Floor Area
6584 sq ft / 611.6 sq m
Outbuildings: 1689 sq ft / 156.9 sq m
Total: 8273 sq ft / 768.6 sq m

Alfords Farm has around 25 acres of land, comprising seven well-maintained paddocks and a 2.5 acre copse. The garden is highly productive. The present owners have created an orchard, fruit cage, vegetable patch and large polytunnel that provide home-grown fruit and vegetables.
