Situation

Folke Manor Farm is situated on the eastern edge of the tiny village of Folke, which is centred around its manor house and church and is surrounded by beautiful, unspoilt countryside. The neighbouring village of North Wootton has the popular Elms Farmhouse Kitchen & Restaurant, whilst most day to day needs can be met in the nearby town of Sherborne which has a wide choice of shops and local businesses including GP, dental and veterinary surgeries, Sainsbury's and Waitrose.

It also has a railway station on the West of England Main Line running between Waterloo and Exeter St. David's, with regular, fast services to both. The property is also well placed for swift access to the main arterial roads across the region including the A352, A30 and A303. Bournemouth Airport is also only just over an hour away by car.

The local area also offers a wide choice of schools catering to children of all ages. This includes a CofE primary school and the well-regarded Gryphon School for the state sector plus Leweston and the Sherborne schools from the independent sector, all of which are within a three mile radius.

Folke Manor Farm

Folke Manor Farm has a beautiful, south facing setting in grounds of about 35 acres with lovely views across its two large ponds towards the pretty parish church and the unspoilt countryside beyond. The house was built in 1988 and then extended in 2002 and has been the much-loved home of only one family over that period. It has a lovely welcoming feel to it and has clearly been well maintained over the years and is very well presented.

The house has two storeys and is built of composite stone under a concrete tile roof with double glazed, stone mullion windows. Its position and design ensure that the interior is filled with natural light that flows into the house's well laid out and generously sized rooms. The ground floor is focussed around a wonderfully light, centrally positioned reception hall, which has a parquet floor and an impressive oak staircase rising to the part-galleried landing on the first floor. Off it are the drawing and dining rooms and a good-sized kitchen opening into the adjacent breakfast/garden room that has French windows to a terrace sheltered by tall hedging. The kitchen is fully fitted with units including a central island, a mix of timber and marble work surfaces, Belfast sink, two-oven AGA, electric oven and a gas hob. Off the kitchen are the boot room leading to the sitting room, which is fitted with a wood-burning stove.

On the first floor off the well-lit, part-galleried landing are five bedrooms with either an ensuite bath or shower room and with far-reaching views.

Outside

Folke Manor Farm stands in beautiful, mature grounds, of which about two acres are formal, park-like garden that incorporates a series of two large, spring-fed ponds fringed by beautiful weeping willows. T o one side of the house is the holiday cottage complex of four cottages, integral guest garaging and an indoor heated swimming pool and gym. Between the main house and the complex is ample parking, a range of outbuildings and a double garage with first floor storage.

Beyond the house and complex to the east is a swathe of rich pasture divided into ?? enclosures. In all the garden, grounds and pasture amount to about 35.09 acres (14.2 hectares).
