Offers over £77,950

Simple Approach are delighted to welcome this excellent opportunity for a mature buyer to purchase a bright and spacious ground floor apartment within the ever popular Millburn Court development to the residential market. Millburn Court is set beside a stunning waterfall within Windsor Terrace in Craigie and could not be better placed for those seeking the benefits of a secure and peaceful location without compromising locality to nearby shops and access to bus routes towards further amenities found in Perth City Centre.

This property comes to there market in good move-in condition throughout. Comprising; a good-sized lounge, one double bedroom with built in storage, a shower room and a fitted kitchen with integrated hob and oven. This great property also benefits from well kept garden grounds to the rear and residents parking. There is further integrated storage in the hallway to make good use of and the development itself boasts amenities such as a communal laundry room, an accessible waste receptacle chute from each floor and a serviced elevator, along with a communal lounge space with guest facilities and on-hand management staff. Viewing is absolutely essential to appreciate the aforementioned benefits as well as to appreciate the overall space and excellent location on offer.
