General Description

A quite exceptional private family home set in the heart of the much revered local village of Carlton, surrounded by glorious rolling countryside and within walking distance of the excellent village pub.

Constructed in 2021 this stylish, modern family home was built to a bespoke and exacting specification, and has been maintained to an exceptional standard since. Set in a plot of just under half an acre circa 0.46 acres, including a gated private drive and generous formal gardens.

The main house provides almost 3000 square feet of exceptional living space. Laid across three floors, expect to find an exceptional internal specification including zoned under floor heating downstairs, hardwood bespoke joinery throughout, remotely operable blinds, a bespoke glass and hardwood main staircase, mood lighting options and a full 'Ring' system.

Location

Carlton is one of the most sought after settlements in Leicestershire, just a mile away from the beautiful historic market town of Market Bosworth. The setting is within some of the country's most wonderful countryside with endless walks, canal, open fields and offers superb transport links to Birmingham, Leicester, Nottingham and London.

Accommodation

In total accessed off the impressive hall there are four main reception areas on the ground floor consisting of formal sitting room, home office, gym/formal dining room and open-plan kitchen incorporating a living and dining area. The kitchen provides a full compliment of excellent quality appliances. The work surfaces are all granite, and this level of detail is continued through into the utility room. Accessed from the utility room is the plant room and w.c, as well as an access door to outside. There is also an additional w.c. accessible from the main reception hall.

Upstairs, positioned off the galleried landing, are four double bedrooms in total all with en suite facilities and with bedrooms one and two offering walk in dressing areas. The principal bedroom suite is of particular note, providing large dressing room area, beautifully appointed four piece bathroom and balcony affording impressive views across the grounds and open countryside to the rear.

The Outside

Externally the plot encompasses a gated large tarmac driveway, large covered seating area and landscaped gardens accessed via the family kitchen.

With gardens laid mostly to lawn and views into neighbouring paddocks.
