General Description

White Cottage represents a superb opportunity to acquire a substantial detached period family home in grounds of circa 0.35 of an acre, located in the heart of the sought-after Wykin Village.

This superb country home offers an abundance of living space extending to just under 3,000 square feet. The accommodation is laid across two floors and includes four reception rooms, four bedrooms, and two shower rooms.

Location

The semi-rural village of Wykin is set within the Leicestershire countryside, with neighbouring Stoke Golding village providing amenities to include a primary school, a secondary school, three public houses, a restaurant, along with a village shop and two hair salons and the much-revered historic market town of Market Bosworth and Hinckley town centre offering further amenities.

There is a direct train from Nuneaton station to London Euston, travel time 1 hour 3 minutes

Viewings

Accommodation

The property dates back to 1928 and has since been extended to present itself as a wonderful family home with generous room sizes supported by features; such as bay windows, vaulted ceilings and glass gables.

From the porch is a large WC, good sized entrance hall with doors through to the formal dining room, garden room, lounge and study with mezzanine. The kitchen/breakfast room has a range master cooker, dishwasher and built in fridge. There is also a superb walk in pantry and understairs cupboard. Further to this is a rear porch, utility room and two store rooms.

Upstairs, you will find four double bedrooms, two shower rooms and a further WC off the first floor landing.

Gardens and Grounds

Situated on Wykin Road, the property enjoys a prominent position with an in and out driveway leading to a detached double garage with electrically operated roller doors.

The gardens and grounds are beautifully manicured and landscaped with several seating terraces, lawned areas, mature borders and hedgerow offering a high degree of privacy. There is an orchard with a variety of fruit trees and a greenhouse.

Tenure

Freehold.
