General Description

Common Farm is an incredibly magnificent former farmstead set in approximately twenty two acres, set on the outskirts of the historic Market Bosworth and the ever-popular village of Carlton.

Set behind imposing twin gates the site extends to c. 22 acres or thereabouts enclosing a number of buildings comprising three private dwelling units to include the main house, a part two storey barn conversion and a single storey barn conversion, to the side of which is a range of commercial and industrial buildings and top of the range equestrian facilities, all surrounded by pasture land with some c.11 acres to the north and a further c. 11 acres to the south, east and west.

The former farmstead was fully rebuilt in 2009 with no expense spared, each part of the design and build was considered with meticulous attention to detail resulting in a fine example of a country home that has all the modern requirements of luxury family living, whilst retaining an abundance of rural character and charm, truly deserving of a property of this statue and calibre.

The Main House

This imposing country farm house comprises of a two-storey dwelling extending to a gross internal floor area extending in excess of c. 3,772 square feet. Expect to find generous proportions throughout, centred around an impressive oak staircase is the main living room, garden room, dining room, open plan kitchen living, utility room, family room, w.c. and fourth bedroom with en suite facilities. Upstairs there is a study and three bedrooms all boasting dressing and en suite facilities, two of which also offer outside seating areas.

Barn C

Barn C is the larger of the barns and comprise a part single and part two storey barn conversion extending to a gross internal floor area of over c.1800 square feet this with a layout including a hall entrance, cloakroom, sitting room and dining kitchen with a further open plan living area beyond which is a ground floor bedroom with an en suite shower room off. On the first floor level are two further en suite bedrooms and a dressing room.

To the front of the bar is an extensive block paved courtyard offering excellent parking and pleasant seating terrace. To the rear of the property is a large lawn area with superb open views.

Barn B

Barn B is positioned at the back of the main house, set behind a lovely landscaped front garden with centre seating terrace and sectioned lawn. The gardens wrap around the barn and are laid mostly to lawn with established trees.

Expect to find, a single storey barn extending to a gross internal floor area of over c. 1,300 square feet with a layout including a hall entrance, cloakroom, sitting room and kitchen with an open plan dining area beyond which are three bedrooms, a bathroom and en suite.
