General Description

Alexanders of Market Bosworth are favoured with instruction to market Cottage Farm, an exceptional country home occupying an impressive position on Barr Lane, Higham on the Hill.

Accommodation

Internally, expect to find well appointed living accommodation set over two floors to comprise: Large glass entrance porch, reception hall, bay windowed home office, spacious family room with fireplace and bay window, sitting room with fireplace and sliding door accessing the conservatory, open plan kitchen/breakfast room, separate dining room, wc and utility room. Upstairs are four bedrooms and family bathroom. Bedroom one boasts an en suite shower room and dressing room. Bedroom two also has the benefit of a dressing room.

External

Cottage Farm enjoys views of its formal south westerly gardens and 6.1 acre paddock which includes a gravelled drive leading to the yard and timber stable block. The property is set back from Barr Lane behind an expansive in and out drive with centre front lawn, leading to a block paved driveway providing more than enough parking. Beyond the property is a large seating terrace with feature garden pond, well established borders, mature hedging and lawned area with garden shed.

Location

The property is situated in the heart of the pretty village of Higham on the Hill, approximately 2.8 miles north east of Nuneaton. There is a direct train from Nuneaton station to London Euston, travel time 1 hour 3 minutes. Within a short distance is a choice of exceptional independent and state schooling options, and the much revered historic market town of Market Bosworth. Leicester, Birmingham and Northampton are all easily commutable via the motorway network.
